

Name: _____

Relative Pronouns

A relative pronoun introduces an adjective clause. It refers to a noun or a pronoun in a sentence. Relative pronouns include the words who, whom, which, that, and whose. These words are used to introduce more information about a noun.

example:

My brother, who is five years younger than me, helped wash the car.

The word who is a relative pronoun, referring to "my brother." The word who introduces the adjective clause, "who is five years younger than me."

Circle the relative pronoun in each sentence. Draw one line under the entire adjective clause. Then draw two lines under the noun which it modifies.

example:

My grandpa's car, which is a 1967 Chevy, needed to be washed and waxed.

1. It's the car that was given to him when he was 18 years old.

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

6. My brother, whose clothes were soaked, found a towel and dried the car.
7. I pulled out a can of wax that I had purchased at the store earlier in the day.
8. When I waxed the car, I made sure I used rags that were dry and clean.
9. The car's blue paint, which hasn't been cleaned in years, shined up beautifully.
10. Grandpa, who had been sitting in a lawn chair watching the whole time, smiled and thanked us.

Answer Key

Relative Pronouns

A relative pronoun introduces an adjective clause. It refers to a noun or a pronoun in a sentence. Relative pronouns include the words who, whom, which, that, and whose. These words are used to introduce more information about a noun.

example:

My brother, who is five years younger than me, helped wash the car.

The word who is a relative pronoun, referring to "my brother." The word who introduces the adjective clause, "who is five years younger than me."

Circle the relative pronoun in each sentence. Draw one line under the entire adjective clause. Then draw two lines under the noun which it modifies.

example:

My grandpa's car, which is a 1967 Chevy, needed to be washed and waxed.

1. It's the car that was given to him when he was 18 years old.

2. I told my

3. My little

4. We was

5. Then I pu

6. My broth

7. I pulled o

8. When I v

9. The car's

10. Grandpa thanked

A red-bordered box containing a large red word "Preview" at the top. Below it, the text reads "Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet." At the bottom of the box is a cartoon illustration of a superhero with a red cape and a blue suit, flying through the air. The superhero's chest has a shield with the letters "MJS" on it.

o.

down the vehicle.

car.

he day.

in.

autifully.

me, smiled and